addin's cave of original de er up

iting
'The
the
root)
lerful
and

esign
and a exclu-
e for-x – a ween ter in bition,

nding
plied
nland
nsem-
nder-
day a

solute
ercib-

ing and original design — everything from ceramic bowls to jewellery, woodcraft, silverwork, handbags and cards. You name it and it's probably there.

I was delighted to see that Sue Cathcart, whose papier mache figures I love, has branched out into a range of cut-out Perspex jewellery as well as her famous Mr Paper cards — Mr Paper is entirely made up of Belfast Telegraphs! Look up her website, www.mr-papers.com — it's guaranteed to make you smile.

Sue also has a great range of 'Wee Dolls' — little figures presented in boxes, which are charming and inventive. Sue's pieces caught my eye but actually there are so many lovely things that it is almost impossible to choose which to mention.

Rehash from Banbridge has a range of very unusual handbags made from combinations of wool,

Left: Mr Paper by Sue Cathcart; right: Ceramic Piece by Adam Frew

leather
Andrew
beauti
brooch
great c
Ther
cards
hand-t
ware b
pieces
and ch
Wilson
mirror
Ballym
goes o
In th
bition
next m
Cairns
and wi
For
out w tive.co